

Dr Bellows, 232, East 15th Street, with his wife and child, their son, daughter, and wife, and I hope, also, Mrs. and Mr. Bellows, and Mrs. Bellows, and Mr. Bellows, Philadelphia.
I had expected to see you to be in the West, - but have been unwell at Washington, and doctor advises me not to travel either South or West, just now. Under these circumstances, I have come to the conclusion that I had better hasten my return to England, and there, I shall be able to see you.

William Lloyd Garrison

endeavour to leave N. York boat that sailed by the 27th - the Abyssinia.

I shall regret very much not seeing you again. My intercourse with you will be amongst the brightest and most delightful memories of my American experience.

I am thankful to have seen you in Boston, and to have talked by your side, and loved your visit, and rejoice with you in the issues of your fresh life-work.

You will be proud, I trust, in many years yet, to make

your friends happy, and to enjoy the rest - which you have so well earned. Accept my thanks for all your kindness, and my best wishes for your health, and the success of the cause and benevolent genius in which you are so interested!

I suppose you have sent me the <sup>papers</sup> papers, & from your office. I shall hope to see them next week, and to see you. - This evening I have been having a little quiet conversing with our friends

Dr Purroy. He is apparently strong and in the enjoyment of a hale and peaceful old age. I don't suppose he will close the 50th year of his minority.
I should like that we should both be present at the jubilee!

Remember me kindly to your sons. I hope that Garrison is thriving - that I can visit you.

If you have time a five line card, I would hardly try to get typed. I shall be to hear from you in New York.
A letter may be addressed to me
